I saw a little rabbit go hop, hop, hop.
I saw his long ears go flop, flop, flop.
I saw his little eyes go wink, wink, wink.
I saw his little nose go twink, twink, twink.
I said, "Little Rabbit, won't you stay?"
He looked at me and...hopped away!

Kool-Aid™ Egg Dye

Take 1 pkt of Kool-Aid to 2/3 cup of water and stir. Eggs do not need to stay in long and smell wonderful! No vinegar required.

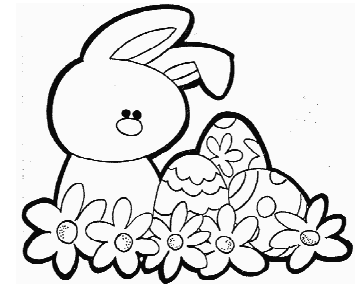

Get ready to read by...

Listening to different sounds. As you take a spring walk, stop and listen to all of the background noises...birds, wind, planes, dripping water. Being able to focus on small details is excellent practice for focusing on text.

Easter Egg Sound Exploration

Fill extra plastic Easter eggs with different items from around the house. Try rice, coins, dried beans, sugar, or torn tissue. Have your child explore the sound and try to guess the item inside the egg. Display duplicate items on a tray to help them guess.
